

Tom, Kim, and Tom,

You've probably known Janelle for as long as I have, so there may be little need to add my adulations to those coming your way.

Still, I would feel remiss not to add my name to those suggesting you appoint her to the vacancy created by the tragic passing of Larry Meyers.

Her efforts to protect the rights of Iowa citizens and the integrity of our local natural resources serve as testimony to her character and effectiveness.

We can be confident and proud to entrust in her a position of greater authority.

It is in the best interests of all Johnson County that Janelle Rettig begin serving on our Board of Supervisors, for which she is so well prepared, at the earliest opportunity.

Thank you for all you own work in the public service.
