Dear Vacancy Committee:

I am writing to support Janelle Rettig's application for the vacancy on the Board of Supervisors left by Larry Meyers' untimely death. I was delighted when I heard that she was planning to run for the Board in next year's election, because I think she has the ability and temperament to make her an excellent Supervisor. She has already done a great deal of preparation for that campaign and I think her decision to apply for the vacancy is a wise one.

I became acquainted with her during the Land Water and Future bond issue campaign, and was very favorably impressed by the passion and perseverance that she put into that project. She understood what needed to be done and devoted herself to the task. She is committed to sustainable development and environmental protection; she is well organized and knowledgeable about the county, and understands the major issues that come before the Board.

I urge you to give serious consideration to her application.

Sincerely yours,

Jean Lloyd-Jones
